

Sheriff Richard Mack Event

Monday, October 17th, 2011

St. Mark's Methodist Church

1839 NE 8th Rd, Ocala, FL 34470

Sheriff Richard Mack, nationally acclaimed author, speaker and former Sheriff of Graham County Arizona will be coming to Ocala on Monday, October 17th, 2011 to speak to citizens and law enforcement officers about how one person can make a difference. In 1994 Sheriff Mack took on the infamous and unconstitutional Brady bill and on June 27th, 1997, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Brady bill was in fact unconstitutional and a violation of the 10th Amendment and threw it out.

Federal tyranny is becoming more and more pervasive and threatening to destroy the very freedoms enshrined in the U.S. Constitution. Patriotic Americans must take a stand and resist Federal tyranny. To this end, it is imperative that Americans understand the importance of electing constitutional law enforcement officers (officers who have read the U.S. Constitution, understand it, agree with it and who will not violate the sacred oath that they took to uphold and defend the U.S. Constitution as well as their state Constitution.

Richard Mack is that kind of Sheriff and he will be coming to Florida during the month of October. On October 17th, 2011 he will be speaking during breakfast, lunch and dinner at St. Mark's Methodist church in Ocala. Ticket's are $15.00 in advance and $20.00 at the door. Price includes meal and free copy of Sheriff Mack's book "The County Sheriff America's last Hope." Law enforcement officers get a free meal and a copy of Sheriff Mack's book. For those who cannot come to meet Sheriff Mack, you can hear his message on pay-per-view on the internet. We are currently in the process of setting up the pay per view so if you are interested in attending the event in person or pay-per-view, just fill out the form below and we will contact you with more information.
